Fall Programme 2009

September 22, 2009: Sayard Chartrand: “Living and Teaching in Nunavik”

Sayard Chartrand trained in Scotland as a high school teacher specializing in History. She has been teaching in Kangiqsujaq in northern Quebec for three years. She will describe her experiences living in this modern Inuit community as well as the challenges facing its younger generation.

October 27, 2009: Denis Wardlow and Anabelle Tirado: “The Art of the Violin”

Denis Wardlow, a boatbuilder/designer with experience of many other products, turned to making violins in his retirement. He will introduce us to this art, and Anabelle Tirado, a professional violinist, will play some of his instruments and comment on the ‘voice’ of each one.

November 24, 2009: Adam Gollner: “Exploring Fruit”

Adam Gollner, Montreal-based author of the award-winning “The Fruit Hunters,” described as “a culinary adventure from the jungles of Borneo to the supermarkets of North America,” will share the background stories he learned while doing the research for his book.

Annual Membership Fees are $25.00 per person and we are actively seeking new members. Guests are most welcome ($5.00). Come and bring a friend.

Please share your ideas for future speakers, or changes that would help keep the Laurentian Club relevant and effective.
